

DOOLIN INN

From Doolin with Love

Something magical

Nestled in the heart of Doolin village, and surrounded by the enchanting landscape of the Burren, Doolin has stood as the most idyllic backdrop to thousands of love stories, making it the perfect setting for your big day.

About Doolin Inn

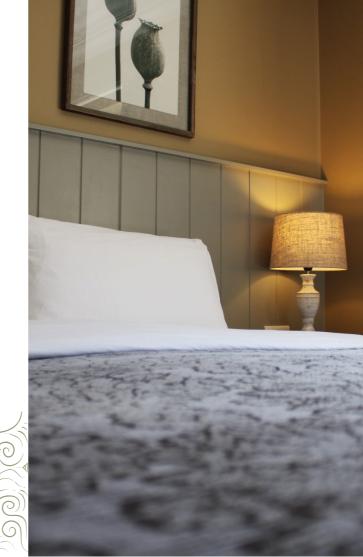

We often have smaller weddings with couples eloping and can also cater for bespoke weddings for 32 - 60 people with private rental of the entire property.

A Blissful Night's Sleep

Doolin Inn comprises 22 bedrooms ranging from cosy doubles to deluxe double/twin rooms. Each room is ensuite, equipped with a safe, all mod cons and everything you need for a blissful night's sleep.

All about You

Our focus is on looking after you and your guests' accommodation, and food and beverage needs throughout your stay. We have worked with many local suppliers and are happy to point you in the right direction for all your other wedding needs be it a local photographer, hairstylist, beautician, celebrant, wedding coordinator, musicians, and more.

Culinary Delights

You'll enjoy some of the freshest taste experiences around, with local artisanal produce being at the core of our food ethos. Prepared by Chef Tomas and his team, attached you'll find our wedding menu of suggested dishes for your big day. All ingredients are fresh and seasonal so depending on the season, some garnishes may change, and as we are always evolving, new dishes may be available closer to your wedding day.

Private Dining & Private Rental

Your wedding meal is served in the private dining room which can cater for up to 30 persons. Weddings for up to 30 people can be catered for all year round. We can also cater for bespoke weddings of between 32 - 60 persons with private rental of the entire property (min 2 nights). Private rental of the property is available from 1 November to 31st of March.

- The wedding meal consists of arrival reception of canapés and cocktails, followed by a 4 course restaurant meal.
- Beverages are on a consumption basis with a budget easily organised prior to the event.
- Table decoration and set up are included with candles and table flowers.
- You are welcome to replace your choice of centrepiece with a local florist creation, but unfortunately, we do not allow confetti or glitter.
- PA system for speeches and audiovisual equipment if required.
- We not not cater for after dinner entertainment and dancing and recommend visiting one of the local pubs.
- We do not cater for ceremonies onsite unless private rental of property is taken.

Prior to your big day, we will work with you to organise your accommodation requirements for you and your guests. We can also organise arrival amenities for guests' rooms and other special requests that may be required.

The night(s) before and after the wedding we can arrange informal cocktail gatherings on our terrace, to a relaxed family meal in our restaurant. We can also recommend excursions with special discounted rates such as Cliffs of Moher cruises, Aran Island daytrips, exploring the Burren with packed lunches and picnics full of local produce.

On the big day, get ready with ease in the comfort of your room and enjoy your ceremony at one of the many unique locations that surround us, from church weddings to ceremonies on the Cliffs of Moher and more.

On-site ceremonies can also be accommodated with private rental of the property.

Return to the Inn to be greeted with cocktails and canapés on our garden terrace overlooking the village or on cooler days in the warmth of our hidden roofed garden.

Enjoy a celebratory 4 course restaurant dinner using the best of local produce in our private dining area with those dearest to you, complimented with wines and beverages suited to the occasion. Relax and enjoy the speeches and toast to the health of the happy couple.

After the celebration meal, return to your room to freshen up and then stroll down to one of the local traditional Irish music pubs for a night of entertainment, banter, and catching up with old friends and family members.

The next morning wake up to breakfast, before getting ready to set out for your new adventure together as life partners.
